

MECHANICAL DESIGN DRAFTSPERSON

Navanex is a company specialized in naval architecture and marine engineering. Located in Gaspé and working closely with Chantier Naval Forillon, Navanex stands out for its strong expertise in shipbuilding as well as its comprehensive client support.

Our mission: to simplify naval architecture, design innovative vessels, and provide high-level engineering services to the maritime industry.

As we continue to grow, we are looking for a Mechanical Design Draftsperson who will play a key role within our young, passionate, and dynamic team.

REQUIRED PROFILE:

- DEP or DEC in industrial drafting, mechanical engineering, or any equivalent training;
- 3 to 5 years of experience in mechanical drafting or technical design;
- Proficiency in drafting software such as AutoCAD, Inventor, Rhino, or equivalent;
- Ability to work in a structured, methodical, autonomous, and rigorous manner;
- French and English level 4/5 (spoken and written).

YOUR DAY-TO-DAY ROLE:

- Create 3D models of innovative vessels and prepare assembly drawings;
- Design all components making up a vessel;
- Produce technical drawings and construction documents with exemplary precision;
- Integrate mechanical systems with creativity and ingenuity.

WHAT SETS YOU APART:

- Excellent priority management and ability to meet deadlines;
- Strong communication skills and ease in interacting with clients;
- Passion for the maritime field and shipbuilding;
- Autonomy, resourcefulness, and flexibility;
- Natural curiosity for new technologies;
- Analytical mindset, sound judgment, and attention to detail;
- Meticulousness and precision to deliver error-free designs.

WORKING CONDITIONS:

- The opportunity to grow within an organization with the wind in its sails and driven by challenges — and, of course, all the rest;
- A full-time (40 hours/week), permanent position;
- Competitive salary based on your profile;
- Access to a group insurance plan and retirement plan;

- Flexible schedule with the possibility of part-time remote work.
